

SIMPLY RED

London hairstylist and salon owner Michael Barnes used classic hairdressing techniques and beautiful rich red tones to give this pretty yet playful design a modern editorial feeling. To create the look—part of his Serene Collection—Barnes loosely tonged hair through to the ends, pulling it into two low side sections before twisting and securing it. “Its beauty lies in its simplicity,” says Barnes about the easy-to-wear style that’s suitable for both day or night. —K.D.

It's Only Natural

The new Natural Bamboo Brush Collection from R Session tools meets all your blow-dry needs. The four round brushes—ranging in size from 2.25-inches to 3.25-inches—each feature a bamboo handle, a gold-colored ceramic-coated barrel, a combination of boar and porcupine bristles and a bamboo pick conveniently stored in the handle. The line also includes small and large teasing brushes to give hair some added lift. rsessiontools.com —L.M.

EDITOR'S PICK!

Bright Lights

Illume's cheery new Boho Jar candles are sure to liven up any room. The candles feature a 100 percent natural beeswax and soy blend and essential oils, along with gorgeous metal lids. Choose from sweet and earthy Amber Satsuma (seen here), fruity and floral Frangipani & Gogi, and tropical-scented Pineapple & Palm. illumecandles.com —L.A.

BAG OF TRICKS

Sometimes a purse can feel like a big black hole, where lipsticks, cell phones and keys seem to mysteriously disappear. The Pouchee, however, solves this problem by keeping your belongings in one place. Available in either herringbone cotton or leather in a wide selection of colors, the Pouchee has 10 outside pockets and five inside pockets for ultimate organization. pouchee.com —L.M.

ARTISTIC AROMA

Pop culture icon Andy Warhol and the Eastern Long Island, NY, seaside town of Montauk, his favorite summer retreat, are the inspiration for a new eau de parfum from Bond No. 9 called Andy Warhol Montauk. The androgynous summer fragrance mingles the fresh scents of blueberry and wild bergamot; the floral aromas of hyacinth, lily of the valley and honeysuckle; and rich and earthy silver maple, red oak, driftwood and amber. The vibrantly hued bottles—available in two different color palettes—display four of Warhol's iconic Sunsets, a series consisting of 632 unique screen prints dating from 1972, one year after the artist discovered Montauk. With its urban beachy vibe, this new scent is sure to linger well beyond Warhol's famed 15-minutes. bondno9.com —L.A.

Greece is the Word

The best way to channel your inner goddess?

Take a cue from fashionistas like Victoria Beckham and Sarah Jessica Parker and top off hairstyles with the Eddera-Paris Greek Leaf Headband. The handcrafted Grecian-inspired gold headpiece is part of a high-end hair accessory collection fashioned by Camille Eddera, a former fashion model who has turned her attention to hair jewelry. eddera.com —K.D.
